32 Commissioner James thought the secretary got Commissioner Allen’s name on some of his 33 comments. Chair Beltmann explained because the secretary listens to recordings of the meetings
34 and then records the minutes, the Commission needs to be aware, not talk over each other, and 35 let people finish their comments to ensure comments are recorded appropriately.
36

37 Ms. Olson indicated she can go through the minutes and make corrections. She noted the 38 minutes could come back for approval after corrections are made or could be approved at the 39 meeting tonight.
40

41 Commissioner Allen wondered how the mistake can be avoided in the future.
42

43 Ms. Olson explained at the City Council level, the Mayor has the Council raise their hand for 44 recognition and then the Mayor states the Councilmember’s name for them to speak. The same
45 could be done at this meeting and she would try to keep track of who speaks, which might help
46 the minute taker.

New Business

a. Hispanic Heritage Month Programming

Assistant City Manager Olson provided a recap on the Hispanic Heritage Month event. She noted a flyer has been developed in both English and Spanish and the event will occur on October 5th at Central Park from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. She noted the band has been booked and there will be one food truck. There will be some information tables including one for the Census, Ramsey County Library along with a table for the city, HRIEC Commission, and Police and Fire Departments.

Chair Beltmann indicated she created an event on the Nextdoor App and asked the Commissioners to share it. She asked staff if this could be placed on the city’s Facebook page and she noted she saw the flyers at the coffee shop.

Commissioner Bolinger indicated she brought the flyers to the library and also at Cederholm and dropped some off there as well. She also dropped some flyers off at St. Odilia Church. She noted she did talk to the ice cream truck person and may have some availability that day if the Commission decides to have ice cream there as well. She thought Hot Chocolate may be an option with spices for Mexican Chocolate. She also shared it on her Facebook page.

Chair Beltmann asked for Commissioners to help with flyer distribution.

Commissioner Djevi thought if the Mayor could be at the event it would be good to put out a good message.

Commissioner Bolinger thought if there could be someone at the event from the Police Department of Fire Department who is bilingual for the welcome would also be helpful.

91 Chair Beltmann thought anyone who speaks Spanish could do the welcome and it
92 would not have to be from one of the city departments.

93
94 Commissioner Peterson wondered if there could be an interpreter there as well.

95
96 Ms. Olson thought if the Mayor were to be there, he might be able to have his
97 welcome speech ready ahead of time and someone from the Spanish community
98 could read it then there would not need to be an interpreter there.

100 Chair Beltmann assumed the band will be taking breaks during the event so suggested 101 the welcome not be at the beginning when people are trickling in but during one of 102 the breaks.

103
104 Commissioner Allen requested a list of churches in the city in order to drop flyers off.

105
106 Commissioner Djevi indicated he will be going to the mobile homes.

107
108 Commissioner Bolinger noted she went to the Fairview Community Center already.

109
110 Chair Beltmann also recommended emailing or sending out the flyer electronically
111 would work as well.

112
113 Commissioner Macomber left the meeting at 6:49 p.m. due to illness.

114
115 Commissioner Djevi asked if someone should drop flyers off at the schools.

116
117 Ms. Olson explained she reached out to Ginger and asked her if she could help
118 distribute the flyers to the schools.

119
120 Chair Beltmann asked if there is the ability for future events next year for doing 121 registration pages and sign-ups or is that not something the city would want to get 122 into.

123
124 Ms. Olson indicated she would have to defer to the Park and Recreation Department
125 on that because she did not have the experience to answer that question.

126
127 Chair Beltmann reviewed the next steps for the event with the Commission.

128
129 b. Best Practices Update

130 Chair Beltmann explained she was still working on this and was working on the 131 format for it. She wanted to make it more of a toolkit versus a document that people 132 have to read through. She noted Ms. Olson has some things for insertion into the 133 document. She would love to get some additional help on working through this 134 document and she would like to create some templates to be a part of this document
135 as well. She wondered if there are other Commissioners who are willing to put

136 together some of the pieces of the document in order to have a more complete tool kit
137 to review at the October meeting.

138
139 Commissioner James indicated he can help out.

140
141 Commissioner Allen also agreed to help with this document.

142
143 Commissioner James asked if the idea of this document is to provide a unified 144 approach when people are looking to engage the community.

145
146 Chair Beltmann indicated that was correct. This document is for staff purposes or 147 Commission internal use to standardize how engagement is done across the city.

148
149 c. 2020 Work Plan Discussion

150 Chair Beltmann reviewed the 2020 work plan with the Commission. The intent is to 151 start discussing the work plan for 2020. She asked the Commission to fill out the 152 survey she created because it is helpful for her to find out the Commission's strengths
153 and weaknesses.

155 Commissioner Peterson thought there was a comment about developing process for 156 interviewing and wondered if it was under the community engagement special 157 projects.

158
159 Chair Beltmann indicated it was second from the bottom on the list.

160
161 Commissioner Peterson asked what the procurement guidelines was regarding.

162
163 Chair Beltmann put a suggestion in the survey about providing feedback or 164 recommendations related to how contractors in the city are selected based on Human 165 Rights guidelines. She reworded it a little bit but thought she kept the spirit of what 166 the intent was. She was not sure if the city already has ways to rate contractors.

167
168 Ms. Olson explained to clarify, the issue that has come up in the city with a developer
169 is different than procurement. It is a developer coming through on a development
170 project and completely different than procurement. She noted there are different
171 procurement processes and she knows that staff, Parks and Recreation and Public
172 Works have been trained, best value, which takes into consideration more than cost,
173 but it is a heavy lift to learn the process and to train staff on that. In addition, through 174 the GARE program staff has talked about to take a look at how staff can look to 175 expand some of the business done with the minority class in the city.

176
177 Commissioner Lee arrived at the meeting at 7:14 p.m.

178
179 Commissioner Djevi asked if it was the Commission should be tasked to be involved
180 in the contracts involving Human Rights going forward.

Chair Beltmann and Ms. Olson reviewed the current issue going on in the city with a developer and wage trafficking.

Commissioner Lee wondered if the HRIEC could be involved to find out if there actually is a Human Rights violation.

Chair Beltmann indicated the current issue is one specific instance and the Commission needs to decide when looking at the workplan if there is a role for the HRIEC in this arena of city business for the Commission to be helpful.

Chair Lee thought there was because even at the County level in Ramsey County there is a Racial Equity Action Team and for items to come before the Board of Commissioners whoever is making the proposal needs to show how the proposal is increasing community engagement or what it is doing to end disparities in the community or something like that. Even to get on the agenda it has to address those issues. She thought that was something the HRIEC could work on for similar things. She thought that was great and one of the reasons why she joined the Commission in order to work on things like that.

Commissioner James asked how much overlap there with the State, County and cities on hiring contractors is.

Chair Beltmann thought the Commission was starting to get sidetracked and she wanted to bring it back to the current discussion. She thought the Commission could dive into specifics of what the city has in terms of selection process for vendors and what exists. In terms of looking at awarding contracts for contractors she thought that could be discussed broadly to see if it fits but she did not want to get into specifics at this time.

Commissioner Djevi thought the point he was trying to make is if this is a Human Rights Commission in Roseville and to watch the city Council meeting to learn about what has happened does not make the process look good. His point is what kind of role can the Commission play so that in the future the city does not see these kinds of embarrassing things. He wondered if there was anything the Commission could do.

Commissioner Peterson thought if people are passionate about doing this type of work on the Commission, she would feel comfortable with that being on the workplan. She thought the HRIEC could get involved in things like this and potential for the Commission to have some oversight or discussion around it. She wanted to make sure that the things the Commission has on its workplan are things that people want to do and are passionate about.

Ms. Olson indicated there is a tentative date for the Commission to talk with the city Council about the workplan. She believed it is set for a meeting in November.

226 Before the Commission gets too far into the workplan, this is the proposed workplan
227 and then when it goes to Council the Council will give further direction on whether 228 the items on the workplan something of value for them would be.

230 Chair Beltmann thought this was an incredibly important issue and if the allegations
231 are true that is a huge issue. As a community member she was not happy to see tax
232 incentives going to a company that has allegations against them. That said, she was a
233 little concerned about the Commission taking this on because she did not know what 234 the city already has in place. She wanted to make sure the Commission is being 235 focused on what is being selected. She thought it does raise a question though on the 236 engagement project, is the Commission building in opportunities and tying them to 237 community members to come in and share feedback, talk about issues or suggestions.
238 She would like the Commission to think about the HRIEC meetings and how the 239 Commission engages with the community and build in time to hear from community
240 members to hear about topics.
241

242 Commissioner Allen explained if there was a time for the community to come and 243 discuss this item, he would not have been prepared other than to listen. He would like
244 to be more informed when an issue like what has happened and is being discussed
245 arises.
246

247 Commissioner Djevi agreed and thought if there was a way for the Commission to be 248 better informed it would be helpful.
249

250 Ms. Olson mentioned two points to be aware of, if the Commission is interested in 251 creating space for people to feel welcome, feel encouraged to share information the 252 Commission needs to make it very clear that the Commission does not do Human 253 Rights complaints and the second point is the limitations of the Commission is that it
254 meets once a month and city business does not happen on a once a month basis so
255 making sure that the Commission is informed to the extent possible of things that are 256 occurring and maybe looking at some of the broader processes and procedures of how 257 the Commission is safeguarding against these in the future are where this 258 Commission could be helpful and maybe not necessarily weighing in on individual
259 things but building that foundation so things can be responded to in an appropriate 260 manner.
261

262 Commissioner Djevi indicated he as well as Commission Lee seem to be very 263 passionate about this type of thing and looking at the workplan overall there does not
264 seem to be a lot of human right activities that the Commission does. He thought 265 human rights topics is being put to the side a little bit.
266

267 Chair Beltmann suggested the Commission look at the workplan as a whole and try to 268 determine what the Commission wants to do. She asked if there was anything on the 269 workplan that should be removed or things like human rights work that needs to be 270 added

Commissioner Peterson thought some of the things can be combined such as Training for staff and commissions to improve engagement practices and strategies, which the Commission is already doing some of that and then Work with other commissions/city staff to plan events, when engagement projects come up it would be nice to have the toolkit suggesting the HRIEC could help with an event or project. She wanted to increase collaboration and wanted the Commission to be open to collaboration with other commissions and staff.

Chair Beltmann thought for the proclamation programming, that is an opportunity rather than the HRIEC planning individual events the Commission could partner with Parks and Rec and other commissions. She thought bullet item two under Community Engagement Special Project and the bullet point under Proclamation Programming could be combined.

Commissioner Lee asked what the HRIEC was doing for training for staff to improve engagement practice and strategies.

Ms. Olson explained there has been a core group of people that has participated in the Government Alliance on Racial Equity (GARE) and as part of the GARE training staff put together an action plan and training the staff is one of the items that is being worked on. She noted the first bullet point is pretty covered with the Commission's best practices and part of the recommendation was also do that training. She explained there are two other items that GARE is a part of and have address and are working towards, one is the bullet point "develop process for evaluating new program recommendations" and the other bullet point is regarding the procurement guidelines.

Chair Beltmann indicate she added the "develop process for evaluating new program recommendations" bullet point for the Commission only. She thought some of this is taking what the HRIEC continues to do. The one thing she wanted to ask about is Party in the Park and she did not think the HRIEC should do that because of the limited resources and many of the Commissioners are out of town on the 4th of July so it is hard to get Commissioners to show up and staff a booth. She felt the HRIEC could get more value doing something else.

Commissioner Bolinger thought she was the one that put that on the list and one of the only ones at the booth and it did not really speak to who the Commission is. Her thought was to be represented where the community knows more about the Commission and what the HRIEC and that can help establish relationships in the future. It can help with engagement and reaching out and inclusion. She thought that getting the word out of who the HRIEC is and making a bigger presence at city events was what she was thinking of.

314 Commissioner Peterson thought if the city Council wants the HRIEC to participate in 315 Party in the Park that is fine, but she agreed that it was not a useful resource for the 316 Commission.

317
318 Commissioner Lee thought something to add to the workplan is to have residents
319 come in and interview candidates for positions and that is one way to include the 320 community. Something to add would be to look at what other cities are doing and 321 incorporate them into Roseville.

322
323 Commissioner Allen suggested to try to be at all community events and be present if 324 possible.

326 Commissioner James thought the idea of getting what the HRIEC does out into the 327 community and being more involved with other commissions is really what the 328 Commission is all about. It is bringing up ideas and getting the Commission out there
329 and letting the community know there is a potential voice for them. The Commission
330 can then be the vehicle to go to the city Council. He thought that is something the 331 Commission should focus on.

332
333 Commissioner Djevi thought because the Commission cannot be at every event so in 334 the planning of events by the city or other commissions is there a way to have 335 everyone have a time out with a checklist for the group to think about equality or 336 equity and diversity.

337
338 Chair Beltmann thought the intention of the toolkit the Commission is putting 339 together is for staff and for commissions to use and a big piece of that is looking at 340 the diversity and equity side of things.

341
342 Commissioner Peterson wondered if the Census awareness should be on the workplan
343 because there is already a city employee working on this. She did not know what the 344 HRIEC role would be in that.

345
346 Chair Beltmann went through the workplan with the Commission to figure out what 347 items to remove to the list.

348
349 The Commissions desire was to leave on the list:

- 350
351 1. Essay question contest
352 2. Parade
353 3. Community Engagement work/census work with the city
354 4. Proclamations (look at doing some of these through other Commissions)
355 5. Continue placing proclamation in the display cases

356 Commissioner Lee suggested putting the proclamations in the newspaper to get 357 more exposure or in the city newsletter.

358

359 Chair Beltmann indicated she will send out a revision of the document based on the 360 conversation for people to review before the October meeting and then come prepared
361 to discuss this further at that meeting.

There is no character limit for the fields below.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission? I am passionate about human rights and immigration. I'm a first generation Chinese-American who has lived in Roseville ever since I came to the United States. I've met people from many different backgrounds and listened to their stories. As an immigrant, I believe I have valuable advice for Roseville in becoming more inclusive. Hearing stories of people all around the world whose leaders have failed to acknowledge their humanity breaks my heart, and I want do my bit to make the world a safer place for all human beings. I believe that starts with Roseville, my home for six years and counting.

What is your view of the role of this Commission?

My view of the role on this commission is to give advice to the city on how to make Roseville better serve the people, no matter who they are.

What specific skills or experiences do you have that would be beneficial in serving on the advisory commission for which you are applying?

I've lived in Roseville ever since I came to the US and have seen it change over the past six years. I know what it's like to be in a strange new land and not knowing what other people think of you. I LOVE to contribute whenever possible. I also love to share my culture with others. I've been playing my Chinese instrument, the Pipa, at the Alexander Nature Center for the Chinese New Year event since 2017. I just enjoy seeing different people at the event come together!

If you identified a second choice commission, please include skills or experiences that would be beneficial for serving on that commission.

Length of Appointment: 1 year

Appointment Requirements: Must be enrolled in high school and under the age of 18 and be a resident of the city of Roseville.

Description: As a non-voting member of the Human Rights, Inclusion and Engagement Commission, the Youth Commissioner works in partnership with the other members of the commission and staff liaison. - Engaging with youth and bringing new perspectives to the commission.

Developing Human Rights, Inclusion and Engagement Topics for Youth

- Previous youth commissioners have worked within their local high schools on Human Rights topics and projects as well as managed a summer book read.

Creating Connections within the Community

- Desire and willingness to share thoughts and ideas as they relate to youth in the community
- Ability to work and engage with young people
- Willingness to participate in monthly meetings
- Ability to think creatively
- Ability to work on projects outside of monthly meetings

Estimate Time Commitment:

Meetings are held monthly on the third Wednesday of the month at City Hall beginning at 6:30 p.m. Typical meeting length is 2-3 hours. Depending upon youth commissioner's focus area, will determine the amount of time they spend outside of the meeting. Occasionally, commission work requires additional time including preparing for meetings and other city events (approximately 1/hour per week).

Testimonial from a former youth commissioner:

Responsibilities require a fairly low time-commitment and the commission is an awesome way to learn more about city government, meet new people in the community, improve discussion skills, and fill a leadership role through youth commissioner projects.

ITEM DESCRIPTION: Discuss 2019-20 Work Plan

Background

As the end of the year nears, it is appropriate to begin discussion on planning for the remainder of 2019 and 2020. Staff has included an updated version of the 2018-2019 HRIEC work plan along with a (relatively) blank 2019-2020 work plan. At the bottom of the 2019-2020 work plan are items that have been discussed over the last several meetings that the commission will want to consider for the upcoming year.

As part of this discussion, commission members were asked to identify if they felt the proposed work plan items aligned with duties of the commission, whether they aligned with their individual interests and if they had time to devote to working on the item. Attached is a document that scores each item based on the responses received. It should be noted that at the time this packet was created, that attachment reflects the feedback received to-date (4 of 9 responses) Discussion tonight will center around those priorities.

Recommendation

At our September commission meeting we started a discussion about our 2020 workplan. At our October meeting, we'll need to finalize our workplan so we can be prepared to present our proposed workplan to City Council in November.

To inform the conversation at our next meeting, please use the evaluation information below to rank proposed workplan items. Send your completed rankings to Rebecca by Friday, October 11th. We'll combine the total scores for each item and used that information to guide our discussion at the meeting.

As you consider which activities should be included in our commission work plan, please consider the three following factors:

- 1) Does the activity align with the duties and functions outlined for our commission by the city and City Council? See additional information below or online here:

Calendar of Observances 2020

The increasingly pluralistic population of the United States is made up of many different ethnic, cultural, faith and religious communities. To enhance mutual understanding among groups and promote inclusive communities, the ADL offers this resource as a tool to increase awareness of and respect for religious obligations and ethnic and cultural festivities that may affect students, colleagues and neighbors in your community.

Religious Observations

The calendar includes significant religious observances of the major faiths represented in the United States. It can be used when planning school exam schedules and activities, workplace festivities and community events. Note that Bahá'í, Jewish and Islamic holidays begin at sundown the previous day and end at sundown on the date listed.

National and International Holidays

The calendar notes U.S. holidays that are either legal holidays or observed in various states and communities throughout the country. Important national and international observances that may be commemorated in the U.S. are also included.

Calendar System

The dates of secular holidays are based on the Gregorian calendar, which is commonly used for civil dating purposes. Many religions and cultures follow various traditional calendar systems that are often based on the phases of the moon with occasional adjustments for the solar cycle. Therefore, specific Gregorian calendar dates for these observances will differ from year to year. In addition, calculation of specific dates may vary by geographical location and according to different sects within a religion.
